

Dear Steve,

I hope you are keeping well.

We wanted to say thank you so much for supporting our Maggie's West London centre this year – it is really appreciated and means we can continue to provide free cancer support to anyone who needs us. Despite the challenges, at today's count we have had over 14,000 visits to our centre this year and have stayed open throughout lockdown and will continue to do so. We have adapted our programme of support and moved most of it online, but still continue to be there in the centre for anyone who drops in.

At this time in the year we would usually be inviting you to a thank you evening in the centre, as a time to celebrate and thank you for all you have done this year, with the current restrictions in place this isn't possible.

Please also see attached a centre update with the year's update how we have adapted our support.

We are sadly unable to hold our yearly Christmas carol concert this year, but we do have the below Christmas events taking place if they are of interest to you or your friends/family/colleagues. 100% of the proceeds come straight to our centre. The bake off is taking place on Thursday which we are very excited about!

- Maggie's Carols in the Kitchen -Sunday 13th December, Carols in the Kitchen is a free, virtual Christmas Carol Concert, from our Maggie's kitchens, to yours. With special guests including James Norton, Keeley Hawes and Stanley Tucci, as well as performances from Lulu and Roderick Williams, and the premiere of a new piece by Eric Whitacre, we hope you can join us for our festive evening! Pre-register at www.carolsinthekitchen.eventbrite.com

Thank you so much once again and of course if you have any questions about Maggie's do let me know,

Warmest wishes,

Marie
